

KB-002A

Eruch Jessawala

Mani S. Irani

Mandali Hall, Meherazad, India

February 1975

44:39

Note: Continues on KG-002B

Content

Baba may give experiences that we can digest.

The determination to be his, "Such a determination once and for all, first and last. All that I am belongs to God and not to me."

Poetry in an Indian language, with Mani commenting that there is no compromise. Eddie tries to introduce the idea that one must feel safe to make the leap to surrender, and this is totally repudiated by Eruch and Mani.

Eruch takes over to say the "how to please me" message. Eddie keeps talking about his come to Baba story." Eruch jokes about Eddie and Irwin changing their addresses in order to write change of address cards to Baba per His order.

How Swami Shivananda came to be highly regarded by the local people.

Eruch hired a bungalow with a boat and boatman, and the boatman told Eruch the rumor about Baba indulging in liquor and women. Rumor came from Shivananda's ashram. Full aftermath of that whole business. From Dehra Dun, Eruch and Pendu go to Shivananda's ashram to obtain an appointment for Baba to see Shivananda at Shivananda's ashram. Extra detail about Shivananda having some problem with his lower body after Baba tells Shivananda, through Eruch that Baba doesn't believe in these religious conferences.

Baba's message to Shivananda: "conferences are a waste of time. Until I give love to humanity there won't be a change." This message literally paralyzes Shivananda. Baba sends Eruch back to Shivananda to reassure him that Baba is not unhappy with him.