

KG-008A

Eruch Jessawala

Faredoon Driver (Padri)

Mandali Hall, Meherazad, India

47:02

Themes

Baba gives money to poor family in Madras

Baba gives money to poor family in Hyderabad

Content

Irani comes to visit Baba, falls at his feet. Tries unsuccessfully to give Baba money. Instead Baba says to give the money to Eruch, and directs Eruch to give the money to a poor family. Eruch keeps the money with him, which was uncomfortable. One day Baba sends Eruch to Poona to do some work. Eruch feels thirsty and goes to a sugar cane water vendor for a drink. Eruch overhears a conversation at the counter. Honest man is demoted because he won't share in the graft. Eruch gives them Rs 500.

Eruch's sister Meheru dies, and Baba asks the family for money, Rs. 5000. Help to the needy who were reduced to poverty from middle class existence.

The full story of finding the family of the man in Madras who was reduced to poverty. On the day of Diwali, daughter praying to Krishna. Baba washes the man's feet, and gives Rs 1000.

On a mast trip in Hyderabad, carrying a lot of money but not spending a pie on themselves. One night, hungry and thirsty, Baba had finished His work, it was 2PM, Baba gave a choice of either walking 8 miles to the city to get food, or go back by bullock cart. Mandali chose to go by foot.

In Hyderabad, they came across the address of a princely family (just a husband and wife) reduced to poverty. Could only find them by walking the lanes of the city, finally found them by 6 PM in a homeless person squatting place. Baba approached husband who was almost unconscious with high fever, Eruch suggested that they wait for the wife to come, but Baba turned him down. Now wife arrived, and she thinks Eruch and Baba had killed the man. Husband corrects her and no sooner she gets the information than Baba leaves the place.