Program at Friday talk edited by Meher Baba Oceanic

1954 Mass Darshan programme and the westerners who attended it, and participated in it. Viloo catered the Three Incredible Weeks, Donkin got quite involved in cleaning up to prevent germs from coming into contact with the westerners. Adi drove Baba to and from the mass darshan programme.

Adi hypothesizes why Baba kept seclusion.

Baba represents the entire universe joys, sorrows, sufferings, aspirations. Memory that Baba suffered while some other persons were suffering was taking place somewhere in the Earth. "Nature has created some things that are secret." Baba often said a particular question was beyond the ability of us humans to grasp.

Adi's comments and reminiscences about the days just prior to Baba's passing on 30th January 1969. Comments on Ram Ginde. The events of the last day from Adi's perspective, Adi was not present at the moment of the passing, but brought Ginde with him, as well as Brieseman. Eruch and Goher weeping and crying, but Meheramai kept quiet, and seeing that, Adi sought to control himself and went outside to weep.

Aftermath of phone calls and telegrammes sent and received by Adi immediately advising persons of Baba's passing. Rs. 3000 in costs to communicate and difficulties in getting the funds together.
