ERUCH: But the lurking desire of the self. I will be of help. I will do this. I will do that. Self has to be annihilated. This is what you were doing for these so many years. Was doing it for yourself. Did you do anything for me? This is what God asks. Did you do anything for me? Did you do anything for the truth itself? Intrinsic truth no. But the lurking desire. That is where we always trip. That needs to be eradicated.

We get tricked because of that. Anything and everything with best of motives you want to do it but there is that lurking desire. [Inaudible][clock chimes].

Only if you were to rely exclusively on Him imploring Him to pull you up. You on your own will not be able to. No amount of your austerities. No amount of your wanting to get at the truth. You will have the experiences of all the three spheres. Subtle. Gross, subtle and mental but you will never be relieved of it. You will be still in illusion. You will be enfolded in illusion. You won't reach the reality where there is vestige of yourself. Except that you abandon yourself into His arms. Give yourself up into His arms. Seek, implore His grace to release you of it. That's all. [Inaudible] Exclusivity comes in. Then it's easy.
